Top Tables – take a seat outdoors!

On the brink of brighter days, The Manor House Hotel has added a new dimension to its award winning dining.

From May, as weather permits, you can dine, drink or snack under sunny skies and balmy nights on the pretty al fresco terraces as the Manor House makes the most of the great outdoors.

Overlooking acres of Cotswold countryside, pretty terraces are complemented by scented flower pots and blooming gardens presenting superb fine dining or social drinks with dramatic views all under nature's airy ceiling.

In anticipation of the outdoor life, Chef David Campbell has worked arduously with boutique Wiltshire suppliers and utilised his kitchen garden to create a very tasty experience.

A sizzling new a la carte menu (attached) takes this prime local seasonal produce and presents mouth-watering dishes that highlight distinct flavours and supreme ingredients gifted by the start of a brand new season.

With detail and passion such as Campbell's, it's no wonder The Manor House Hotel has been handsomely awarded 3AA Rosettes for its dining and now is the perfect time to take a seat!

Notes:
